

YIGAL ARNON & Co.
LAW FIRM

Education

Yigal Arnon & Co. is active in education law. We represent and advise a wide range of educational institutions and organizations, including in regard to:

- The administration and operation of educational institutions
- Licensing and recognition by the Israeli government
- Governmental budgeting and funding
- The regulation of charitable organizations
- Human resources issues involving faculty, staff and service providers
- Disciplinary and other student-related issues
- Property and related assets, including land allocation by local municipalities
- Taxation, including with regard to the tax-exempt status of nonprofit organizations (income tax, real estate taxation, VAT), business income, the eligibility for tax exemptions and tax credits for donors
- Ongoing matters, from tenders and contracts to legal proceedings

We also represent clients vis-à-vis the Israeli Ministry of Education, as well as in judicial proceedings, such as in administrative courts and before the High Court of Justice and various appeal committees.

