Experience

Asaf Eylon's practice focuses on real estate. He represents clients in a broad range of complex issues involving land registration, rezoning, residential and commercial projects, construction agreements, real-estate secured lending, and other regulatory issues that arise in real estate matters, including in the Judea and Samaria area.

Asaf received his law degree, with honors, from The Hebrew University in Jerusalem in 1995. He was admitted to the Israel Bar in 1996, joined the firm as a lawyer that year and became a partner in 2006.
